

SWEEPSTAKES JUDGE for 2017 NATIONAL SPECIALTY

The Silky Terrier Club of America is pleased to announce that Joy Simmons will be judging Veteran and Puppy Sweepstakes at the 2017 National Specialty in Albuquerque, NM next August. Joy has been involved with purebred dogs for 38 years and her breeding program has produced over 40 Silky Terrier Champions and Grand-Champions. She has worked with several AKC registered handlers and has put Champion titles on many dogs in the Toy, Terrier, and Hound Group.

Joy has been a member of The Silky Terrier Club of America since 1983, serves as a STCA approved ringside mentor, and chaired the 2013 National Specialty. In addition, she enjoys stewarding at many shows and is an active member of the Cornhusker Kennel Club (chaired an All-Breed show and teaches conformation classes), the Chesapeake Silky Terrier Club (judging Puppy and Fun Matches), and, the Seward Kennel Club (judging Puppy and Fun Matches).

Joy has a special place in her heart for puppies and veterans and is looking forward to this judging assignment.
